addressed to His Highness the Maharaja, which was received in His Office with the Private Secretary's memo no 99 dated 1st September 1902, for report.

(a) no 1929 dated 15th June 1898

(a)
In June 1898 a petition was received in His Office from ^{one} Sreekantiah stating that Ranganna

(the present Petitioner) who was the Samidhi Parisharaka in the Sri Subramaneswara
- Swami Temple at Mangalore, was a man of immoral conduct, that he had been for his immorality dismissed in 1876, but was reinstated sometime after, and that he had still a concubine.
In the petition it was also stated that Ranganna's son Venkatarangappa was actually doing the Parisharaka work in the temple, but that he had also been dismissed from service on a previous occasion. This petition was referred ^(b) to the Dy. Commr of the Mysore District for initial report.

2 In the ^{local} personal enquiry held by the Amildar of the Nanjangud Taluk and Mr C. B. Leshugiri Boro, Mysore Assistant-Commissioner of the Mysore District, the allegations contained in the petition against Ranganna proved to be true. Thereupon the Amildar, the Mysore Assistant-Commissioner and the Dy Commissioner

(2) In the Dy Commr's Pubkari no 2 dated 2nd July 1900.

 recommended the dismissal of the said Ranganna, who was himself doing the work in the temple and not his son Venkatarammappa as alleged in the petition. In recommending his dismissal, the Dy Commr ~~also~~ added that the people had a sort of a dislike to receive ~~8~~ 8 (d) 5 (Gentha) from the said Ranganna.

3. Thereupon, the late Mysore Sanyal issued an order ^(d) directing his immediate dismissal for the reasons set forth in the Dy Commr's Rubkari on the subject, and observing that a good and competent man might be appointed in his stead.

(d) Rubkari no 18 dated 12th July 1900.

4. Ranganna then began to petition to this office praying for his restoration to ^{the} ~~his~~ appointment, but all his petitions were rejected, and he was given ^(e) endorsements showing the reasons why he was dismissed.

8. His Highness' orders were ^{recorded on page 9} accordingly communicated to the memorialist on the 15th September 1902, and a copy of the endorsement was forwarded to the Dy Commissioner, enquiring at the same time as to who was actually doing the Samidhi Parishad work.

8. Before a reply was received from the Dy Comm^r, Venkataraniak, son of the dismissed Parishadaka, Ranganna, submitted a memorial to Government stating that Mallu Sankariah was not appointed as the Samidhi Parishadaka in the name of his (petitioner's) father; that the said Sankariah, who was the Shambhogue of some of the villages was since dismissed from them.

in connection with the embegglmentof Government money; and that the Garichurak's post had therefore been kept vacant since the dismissal of his father. He prayed therefore that, in consideration of the appointment having been in the ^{interrupted} enjoyment of his family for about 25 years since 1875, he might be appointed as the Sumidhi Garichuraka.
 This memorial was forwarded to the Dy Commr for favour of a detailed report together with his opinion -

9. In reply the Dy Commissioner, Mr. B. K. Venkata Venudinagar, states, that ^{since} ~~since~~ the removal of Kasi Ranganna in 1900, Lakshminah was appointed Sumidhi Garichuraka, but he did not enter upon his duties as he was holding a Revenue Shambhogy and that he was subsequently dismissed in connection with the embegglment of of Government money. He therefore recommends that as the Samidhi Parishadike post is a responsible one and as the incumbent of the office has to be entrusted with valuable jewels of the temple, the post may be given to the petitioner Venkata-ramiah / Son of Kasi Ranganatha, who is since dead. They further state that the said Venkataramiah has been holding temporary appointments in the temple and that as he is fit for the Samidhi Parishadike post. The Amildar Mr C. Venkat Rao has further reported to the Dy Commissioner that Mullu Sankariah, who had been dismissed from the Revenue Shambhagan on account of embezzlement of Government money collected by him from the temple, cannot be appointed to the Samidhi Parishadike post in the temple, where he has to deal with Valuable jewels. He strongly supports the claim of the petitioner Venkataraniak on the ground that his father held the post from 1871 to 1900.

10. Muller Sankarish, who has presented a petition to this office, states that, since his appointment to the Paricharik post, he did not enter upon his duties and prays that as he is not guilty, the ~~now~~ recommendation of the Amildar and the Dy. Commr in favour of Venkataraniak may be set aside, by permitting him to do the Paricharik's duty. He refers to the Government order of 1890, which is quoted in para 7 of this note, and the original of which is herewith put up for reference.

12. The Dy. Commr was accordingly requested to favour the Govt with his opinion in the matter of providing Sreekantiah's son with the Samadhi Paricharak's appointment in the temple, provided he was competent, trustworthy and willing to attend to the temple duties himself. The Dy. Commr's attention was also invited to the Council Court's judgement passed in 1890 (referred was stated that, after the death or

13. In reply, the Dy Commr, ^{again} Mr D. K. Venkataravindinegar, reports that Shambhugra Sankantiah was removed from the office of Shambhugra for having embezzled Govt money; that at his own request, his son ^{Chandrasekhariah} was appointed temporarily, as Shambhugra of Govt villages, but that he has not yet been confirmed; that even if he is confirmed, he cannot manage the post of Sannidhi Parishade, in addition to his own Shambhugra duties, and that moreover he is reported to be not quite trustworthy and that he does not possess the qualification necessary for Sannidhi Parishade in question.

Submitted to the Dewan

As Against Sankantiah it is reported 11/3/04 that he embezzled Govt money and was dismissed from the post of Shankhoy of Govt villages. As regards his son of Chandrasekhariah, it is stated that he is temporarily doing the duties of Shankhoy and has not yet been confirmed, that he is not quite trustworthy as an Enquiry is being held into certain irregularities committed by him and that he does not possess the qualifications required for the Samudhi Paricharak's post.

Both these men have therefore to be excluded from consideration

On the other hand, there is nothing on record against Venkateswar, son of Kasi Ranganah. He has performed the duties of Samudhi Paricharak often and for long intervals and is fit for the post. His app't may therefore be sanctioned as recommended by the Dy Commr.

The memorial and other petitions of Seikantes were accordingly forwarded to the Dy. Commr. Mysore Dist and that officer has submitted a detailed report together with the vernacular records bearing on the subject.

The Dy Commissioner's report gives a clear and succinct account of the facts of the case. That officer reports that ^{on 21/1/15} one Ramiah (petr's. uncle) was the Paricharak. banawarddar of the Sri Seikanteswara Swamy temple at Nanjund, the pay of the office being Rs 1-3-0 per mensem, that Ramiah being convicted of theft was removed from office in the year 1866; and that the office was vacant till 1871 when one Kasi Rangantha unconnected with the family of the dismissed Paricharak Ramiah, was appointed, Ramiah having been declared to have forfeited all his huk. He states that in 1876 the then Muzrai Officer dismissed Kasi Ranganna as he was considered to have had criminal intercourse with prostitutes and was therefore untrustworthy, and appointed Senkankah (petitioner) in his place. He further reports that on appeal from Kasi Ranganna, the appointment of Senkankah was cancelled on the ground that he was related to the dismissed Ramiah and that the re-appointment of Kasi Ranganna was left to the discretion of the Dy Commissioner who at the request of Kasi Ranganna gave the appointment to Kasi Ranganna's minor son Venkatasubbiah and ordered the duties to be performed by some one appointed by Kasi Ranganna.

The Dy Commissioner continues as follows:-

in a theft case not connected with the temple and sentenced to imprisonment. The place having thus become vacant, petitioner Seikantiah claimed the office. In the enquiry held in 1890, it was proved that Seikantiah was a divided member of the family of the late Hukhdar Ramiah. The then Dy. Commr. ordered that Kasi Ranganna should continue to do the duties of the office and that on the death of Kasi Ranganna, the office may be given to Seikantiah. The Dy. Commissioner further reports that Govt. in their decision agree with the Dy. Commr. and orders that on the death of Kasi Ranganna or his removal there was no objection to the appointment being given to Seikantiah or his heirs; that on the death of Kasi Ranganna, in pursuance of the above decision, Seikantiah prayed that he might be permitted to do the duty of Sannidhi Saricharika but that the appointment of Venkataraniiah son of Kazi Ranganua was sanctioned in Govt. Sec of the 21st March 1904. He further states that it is this post which the petitioner has been requesting to be restored to him and that the above facts disclose that the petitioner's grievances are real so far as the hereditary hulk is concerned.

In the detailed report of the late Dy. Commr. Mr. Meiklejohn on which the Council decision of the 12th September 1890 is based, it is stated that the petitioner's uncle Ramigh who held a share in the office prior to 1866 was convicted of theft of valuable jewels (garahari) in the temple and sentenced to two years' (Slip A) rigorous impersonment and that after several claims set up by petitioner and his other uncle Ranganna, it was decided by Col. Bearer, Supdt of Ashtagram Divn, that the heirs of Ramiah had lost all right to the office by reason of so serious a crime committed by him and that some one quite unconnected with his family should be appointed to the post. The appointment of Kasi Ranganna in 1841 and the subsequent facts are detailed in the previous pages. It is also reported that the post in question is an important and responsible one including among its duties, the possession of the keys of the box containing jewels and silver vessels. In the Council decision of 1890 referred to above, it is stated among other things, that "in the enquiry now-proved that the appellant (Seikantiah) was a divided member of the family of the late Hucksar Ramiah. In the concluding portion, it is stated that " & in fact he (Kasi Ranganna) has been doing duties from 1841 with a short break in the middle and it would be hard to turn him out, but on his death or removal, there is no objection to the appointment being given to appellant or his heirs."

After the death of Kasi Ranganna, in pursuance of the foregoing orders, Seikantiah petitioned Govt. applying for the vacant post of Sannidhi Panichanike.

As regards Seekantiah, it is observed from the Vernacular records received under cover of the Dy. Commr's letter under reference, that he was the Shanbhog of Mullwa Shinka comprising 4 villages yielding a revenue of Rs 9660-2-0, that he was negligent in his duties and that he constantly absented himself without permission in spite of warnings, thereby allowing the work to suffer. The Amildar reports that the petitioner collected some contribution amounts due from ryots, that he failed to remit them to the Taluk Treasury; that there was no entry of the receipt of of this amount in his "Khundi"; that in the "₹ ₹ ₹ ₹" list presented during gamabandi, he had recorded that he collected only $\frac{1}{2}$ the contribution amount; but that on enquiry, the ryots produced receipts wherein he had acknowledged the receipt the full contribution amount; and that these were noted in the "Takaran &

He further states that Seikantiah is sickly and untrustworthy to discharge the responsible duties ^{of Seikantiah in the} and that he was consequently removed from office and his son Chendrasekariah was temporarily appointed as a tentative measure in his stead for a period of one year. The Amildar also states that even after the confirmation of Chendrasekariah, it is not possible for him to attend to the Banichauke work ~~and~~ in addition to Shambhogue duties, that a very trustworthy (30 30 200 8 80 20 20) person should be appointed to the post in question, and that he is not in favor of recommending Seikantiah or his son. The qualification necessary for the post in question, in Govt order no 2936 dated 21st march 1904, which was passed on the subject, it was observed that neither Seikantiah nor his son could be appointed to the post and the appointment of Kasi Ranganna's son Venkataraniiah was sanctioned as he was reported to be qualified ^{for} ~~to~~ the post of a Samnidhi Barichanike, being also a proper huckdoo and as his father was doing the duties thereof from 1841 to 1900 ie for about 29 years.

From the records now received, it is also observed that on the recommendation of the Amildar that Chendrasekharial was young and energetic, and that he was doing his duties properly, he has been confirmed in Shankhoo's appointment.

Muzrai Secretary's Remarks: -

From the further report and re- received from the Deputy Commissioner, it does not appear that the orders already passed against the Pet. require any re-consideration. But, as the party is present here and bitterly complains of injustice having been done to him, he may perhaps be heard by the 2nd Commis- in a day or two.

Petitioner:- Patharana Sreekantaiya.

Most Respected Sirs,

The petitioner begs to prefer this petition against the decision of the Muzaroy Secretary and begs to submit as follows:--

(1) The above petitioner is entitled to the post of Samidhi Parichaita in the temple of Srikanthaswara Swami at Nanjangud in accordance with the Government Proceedings No 7818/454 dated the 22nd September 1890

(2) In accordance with the above proceedings the petitioner was given the said post in 1900.

(3) In 1903 the then Amildar of Nanjangud reported to the Muzaroy Secretary that the petitioner was incompetent for the said post on the ground that he was guilty of misappropriation in his duties as Shanbhogue, and that another person quite unconnected with the family should be elected for the post.

(4) The said Amildar was wrong in his report because even granting that the Amildar was right in his reasoning he did not take notice of the fact that the petitioner's son was then competent for for the said post and that he had been actually appointed the Shanbhogueⁱⁿ supersession of his father dismissed for the said misconduct.

(5) The Muzaroy Secretary without taking notice of the fact simply passed orders in accordance with the Amildar's report.

(6) Though the petitioner thereafter again and again applied to the Muzaroy Secretary to review his order with an impartial consideration the Muzaroy Secretary persists in passing the order.

(7) The Muzaroy Secretary has by his attitude shown that he is highly prejudiced against the petitioner.

(8) The petitioner thereupon appealed to this Honourable Council and the second Councillor was pleased to call the Muzaroy Secretary to forward the records.

(9) The said Muzaroy Secretary has not in accordance with the above order submitted the records but has again given the notice that no revision of his order could be effected.

(10) Neither the Amildar nor the Muzaroy Secretary has jurisdiction to pass an order contravening the orders of the Council.

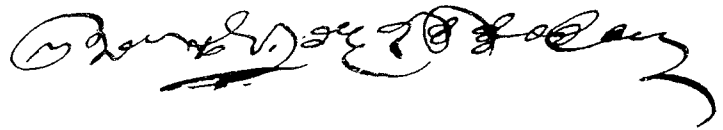

(11) I pray this Honourable Council to call for

for the records of my case and to kindly reconsider the matter in my presence.

Sir,

In continuation of this

I am directed to forward herewith the marginally-noted petitions from Hethammana - Seikantiah of Nanjangud.

The chief contention of the memorialist is that the office of Sannidhi Paricharika swamy temple at Nanjangud is hereditary in his family and that although the Govt.

(the Councilors) has decided that the post had to be given to the memorialist

X addressed to H. H.
The Maharaja

The Govt appointed Venkatararamiah, overlooking his claims.
He prays that the hereditary post may be restored to him

2. In his petition no 431 dated 29th July 1904, Sreekantiah states that some enquiry is going on in the Taluk and District Offices, on the petition of Venkatararamiah, and prays that those records might be sent for and perused which he says will throw light regarding his hereditary claim to the office.

3 Further, the petitioner represents ~~personally~~ ~~personally represented to me~~ that he did not actually embezzle Govt money, while he was Shanbhogue, but that he simply delayed to remit some contribution money and was therefore to his

Shankhognie Baraward in favor of his son ~~Chenwa~~ Sekariah, that in of the Council decision ^{or his son Chandabekharak} he ought to get the Sannishie Barichakike post in the temple; ^{or} ~~that~~ the latter's son - a boy of 4 years - might be appointed ^{of the post in the temple} as Barawarddar, so that the hereditary huk may not be lost to his family.

~~He adds that certain enquiries are being held in the Distt office on the complaint petition of Venkataraniak, the present Barichakak~~

4. I am directed to request that you will be good enough to noted above, together with the entire record bearing on the subject.

Nanjangud regarding the office of sannidhi paricharake of the Sri Srikanteswara swami temple at Nanjangud, I have the honor to state as follows:-

2. One Ramiah (petitioner's uncle) was the ^abarward paricharake of the Sri Srikanteswara swami temple at Nanjangud. The pay attached to the office was Rs. 1-3-0 per mensem. Ramiah was convicted of theft and removed from office in the year 1866. The office was vacant till 1871 when one Kasi Ranganna unconnected with the family of the dismissed paricharake Ramiah, was appointed, Ramiah having been declared to have forfeited all his Huk. In 1876 the then Muzrai Officer dismissed Kasi Ranganna as he was considered to have had criminal intercourse with prostitutes and was therefore untrustworthy and appointed Srikantiah (petitioner) in his place. On appeal from Kasi Ranganna the appointment of Srikantiah was cancelled on the ground that he was related to the dismissed Ramiah and the reappointment of Kasi Ranganna was left to the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner who at the request of Kasi Ranganna gave the appointment to Kasi Ranganna's minor son Venkatasubbiah and ordered the duties to be performed by some one appointed by Kasi Ranganna.

3. Kasi Ranganna however conducted the duties himself on behalf of his minor son. In 1888-89 Venkatasubbiah was convicted in a theft case not connected with the temple and sentenced to imprisonment. The place having ^{thus} become vacant ^{petitioner} Srikantiah claimed the office. In the enquiry held in 1890 it was proved that Srikantiah was a divided member of the family of the late Hukdar Ramiah.

4. The then Deputy Commissioner ordered that Kasi Ranganna should continue to do the duties of the office and that on the death of Kasi Ranganna the office may be given to Srikantiah.

5. Government in their decision dated 14-9-90 (vide copy enclosed) agreed with the Deputy Commissioner and ordered that on the death of Kasi Ranganna or his removal, there was no objection to the appointment being given to Srikantiah or his heirs.

6. On the death of Kasi Ranganna ^{and in} pursuance of the above decision Srikantiah prayed that ^{he} [^] may be permitted to ^{do} the duties of Sannidhi Panichari but Government in their Proceedings No. A dated 31st March 1904 (vide copy enclosed) sanctioned the appointment of Venkataraniyah son of Kasi Ranganna under the circumstances stated therein.

7. It is this post which the petitioner has been requesting to be restored to him.

8. The file of vernacular records relating to the transfer of the shabhogi [^] barward ^a to the petitioner's son Chendra Shekariah and the embezzlement of Government money is herewith submitted for favour of reference. It will be observed therefrom that the petitioner ^{was} not only negligent in his work but also delayed remitting to the Treasury certain Government money collected by him in the shape of contribution etc and that therefore he was dismissed from his office of shabhogi, his son Chendra Shekariah being appointed and confirmed in his stead (vide No. 586 dated 6-11-06) ⁶⁰⁵

9. The above facts disclose that the petitioner's grievances are real so far as the hereditary huk is concerned.

The file of vernacular records ^{bearing} [^] having on the subject received received with the Sub Division Officer's yadi No. $\frac{84}{286}$ dated 23-10-07 is herewith submitted for reference.

THE HUMBLE MEMORIAL OF HETHANMANA SRIKANTIAH OF NANJANGUD

2. No 1584
H.B. 06 was

2. In 1876 the above-named Kasi Rangantha was dismissed from the post for criminal intercourse with the dancing girl attached to the temple and also as quite untrustworthy to hold the post and Your Highness' humble memorialist's claim was recognized and he was appointed to the post in 1876.

4. Venkatasubbiah attained majority, but by the time he was to enter upon duty he was convicted for theft in 1889.

5. At this time Your Highness' humble memorialist represented to the the Government, the injustice of the order of the Muzrai authorities and it was not till 1890 that the Government decided to hear both parties when the then Chief Secretary Mr. T. Ananda Rao having considered the claims of both parties decided in No. 7818—454, dated 22nd September 1890, (copy enclosed for kind perusal) that the post of the Sannidhi Paricharika to be continued in the name of Kasi Ranganna till his death or dismissal and to be given to your humble memorialist; that is, Kasi Ranganna's fault was condoned.

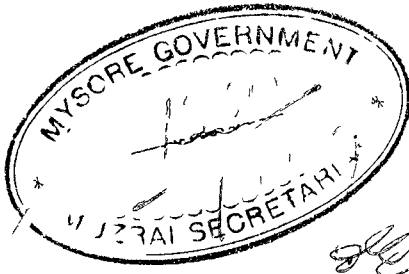

6. In the year 1900 the said Kasi Ranganna was once more found guilty and dismissed and in accordance with the decision of the Chief Secretary the post was conferred on Your Highness' humble memorialist. The memorialist being then a Shanbhogue represented that he would get the duties of the office done through a substitute if it was not possible for the authorities to appoint his son to the post, for a time till the memorialist could arrange to transfer the Shanbhogueship to his son and undertake to do the duties personally. This was approved and the memorialist had the duties performed through his substitute till 1903 when he offered to enter upon the duties personally.

7. At this time Venkataramiah the 1st son of the dismissed Kasi Ranganna petitioned to the Muzrai Department, praying that the said post be given to him. The Muzrai authorities disregarding the decision of the Government, referred to above and overlooking the memorialist's claims appointed Venkataramiah by removing the memorialist from the same, without any fault in him.

8. From the above, Your Gracious Highness may be pleased to see that undeserved injustice has been done to the memorialist by the Muzrai authorities and he therefore humbly prays that justice may be done to him and the hereditary post may be restored to the memorialist and his family.
